Per G.S. Singhvi, CJ

This appeal is directed against order dated 6-7-2006 passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ Petition No. 12290 of 2006, whereby he directed the respondents to consider the appellant's representation for allotment of constructed house either under Urban Housing for Poor Scheme or Rajiv Gruha Kalpa Scheme, in case she is found to be eligible for such allotment.

At the hearing, learned Government Pleader for Revenue on the basis of instructions given to him made a statement that the appellant will be allotted alternative house site within a period of two months from today.

Learned counsel for the appellant says that his client will feel satisfied, if the alternative site is allotted to her.

In view of the statements made by the learned counsel, the appeal is disposed of as infrucutous. Needless to say that if the appellant is not allotted the alternative site within two months from today, then she shall be free to file miscellaneous petition for revival of this appeal and also initiate proceedings under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 on the ground of violation of the undertaking given before the Court.
